

BREXIT CHECKLIST

Have you identified all the data that would be required for trading according to terms of third country?

Without a clear agreement, companies are looking for best options to mitigate the risks and prepare for Brexit.

Read our checklist to make sure you are ready.

-  1. Are you aware how customs declarations on import and export will be affecting your supply chains?
-  2. Planning to make some major changes in your supply chain to ship directly from the EU or U.K. to your current location?
-  3. Figured out what data is required for trading according to new terms?
-  4. Have you registered your companies to obtain EORI numbers in EU or U.K.?
-  5. Will using transit help in facilitating your movements through EU and U.K. ports?
-  6. Have you submitted your declarations that are required in U.K. or EU?
-  7. Is your business in need of exchanging data with brokers, port terminals, port authorities, etc.?
-  8. Do you find a need to invest in customs warehousing?
-  9. Have you applied for AEO status approval for facilitating customs warehousing and simplifying procedures?
